MOSELEY'S TUBULAR WROUGHT IRON

ARCH BRIDGES AND ROOFS. THESE Bridges and Roofs have now been fully tested. In this vicinity, and it is universally conceded that hey cannot be excelled. He Roofs are wholly of Wrought Iron, or mixture of Wood and Iron; Sheeting Wrought fron, or measured always fron.

The Bridges are wholly Wrought Iron except the floor, which is wood, like the floors of ordinary Bridges We are prepared to make those structures in any quantities, at prices about as follows:

Railroad Bridges, 50 feet span, 2,000 lba, $17 50 per foot lines! Common Rend or Turupike, 50 feet span, 2,600 lbs.

foot lineal.

Common Read or Thrupike, 50 feet span, 2,600 lbs.

$5.75 per foot lineal.

Roots, all iron, 50 feet width of building, $25 per 100 squa e feet, part wood and part iron, frem $12 to $20 per square.

Increase of span of bridges er width of buildings makes an increase of price, but the increase in price is no more than the increase of wooden structures.

We can furnish iron of every size to work into Bridges and Roofs, and Railroads or other companies buying the right to use them and the iron of us, can make their own structures one third less than the above prices. Our structures weigh only tron 14 to 1-10 that of wood; difference in freight in a long distance buys our work. In a few days we will have at our Factory, 497 West Third street, in this city, four different specimens of our Roof, where the public can inspect them to their satisfaction. We beg them to give us a cail, as all our work is warranted, and we ask no pay on ordinary jobs until the work is done and approved, payments being secured on contracting. New and Superior Illustrations. Thus improved and perfected, it is believed that no other Universal History can compare with this, for the fullness and accuracy of its statements, the convenience of its arrangement, the clearness, simplicity and dignity of its style, for the consequent interests which it excites, and the valuable instruction which it imparis, or for the durability and neatness of its mechanical execution.

We state positively that this Work is not, and will not be for sale in any bookstore in the country. It is offered only by our Soliciting Agents, one of which is the distributor of this Circular, and by whom alone the Work is sold in this locality.

Gentlemen:—Having made a particular examination of Goodrich's "History of All Nations," I am tree to say, that I know of no work great or small, that contains half the ensuant of useful and entertaining matter for family reading. It is written in Mr. Goodrich's bestities with a coording to the usual cost of good reading, two or three times the money you ask for it. It is ne wonder that you have to keep a power press running constantly to sapply the orders for these volumes; for the public have only to know their value to make them a universal want with all classes.

I am, gentlemen, most respectfully yours.

Extract from a Letter from Ex-President Fillmore. I think it eminently deserving of the public patrenage. It is necessarily brief, but it brings under review, with its admirable illustrations, the principal subjects worthy of attention in all nations, and to the young especially, it is is rainable.

I have been familiar with Mr. Goodrich's writings I have been familiar with hir Jure Occurred a writingly for many years, and have the pleasure of a personal acquaintance with him; and think him admirably qual-ified for imparting instruction in a way that brings it within the reach of the common mind.

FRANKFORT, KY

Platte. A gentleman of this city has put us in posses-August, giving some additional and more reliable particulars in regard to recent discoveries of gold on the South Platte river. We attach more importance to the statements of this because the

At the time of writing, he had just returned from Cherry Creek. The Cherokee company had returned home before the writer arrived there, having prospected Cherry Creck, Raiston's Forl: and Long's Creek, without having found nuch gold—thinking it would not pay, they became discouraged and went home. Capt. Russell, of Lumpkin county, Georgia, who was with them, remnined to prospect still further, and af ter their departure was very successful. The writer saw where they had been digging, and The from the amount of work done at each place, and the amount of gold obtained, he thinks the prospeet a very good one. The product is said to be very irregular. The first diggings are about four miles up the Platte river, and about half a mile from the river towards Cherry Creek. there two or three men would work with a rock er, while the others were on the look out for bet ter diggings, and they made from seven to ten dollars per man each day. After working here a few days, getting all the gold they could, they moved out about three miles, and rather up the river in a ravine; here they worked in the same way, making from eight to ten dollars per day, till the digging failed. Then they moved again to the river about six miles from the first work, and the proceeds were about as good Mr. Russell says he has gotten as much as three dwt. per pan, and the three men with the rocker have obtained from one day's washing of one hundred buckets of earth, which they had to pack fifty yards, 49 dwts. and 2 gr As the result of all their work and prospecting they obtaining some thing this side of five hundred dwts. of gold, or about twenty-five ozs.

The writer examined the country for several miles round and up the river, and expresses the opinion that five and six dollars per day can be obtained by several hundred men, without any further discoveries. As Mr. Russell's company was weak, he would not attempt to winter there, and they were deterred from looking out for some-thing better, and this winter will return to the settlements. The writer sends in ten dwts. of the gold obtained from Russell's party.

The whole country was covered with elk, ante lope and deer, and herds of sheep were to be ound all through the mountains. These are the essential statements contained in the letter. As they smack of gold, the fascination is quite sufficient to induce hundreds of adventurers to go in quest of it. From our settlements they such other comforts as the climate and country may require. It is too late in the season for many of them to make their way to the land of promise this year, but unless the tenor of the accounts is materially changed, we may look out for a flight of gold hunters to the Platte next They will not stop to inquire whether they cannot earn as much money at home, but will go there on a speculation, to the prejudice, as it may turn out, of their health and their

A letter from Nebraska Territory, in this morning's paper, gives us news of a similar tenor in regard to the gold diggings.

ITWe have noticed the capture of a slave by the U. S. brig Dolphin. The Washington Star states that the officer who brought the prize into on Monday morning, charged with aiding the Charleston, Lieut. J. M. Bradford, also reports slave to escape from his master to a Free State. to the Department, from that city, under date of August 27th. He encloses a copy of his instructions, and remarks.

That portion of his instruction requiring the prisoners to be put in irons would, if executed, have made our voyage to this place impracticaty. We believe at that time he was the proper ble, for the slaves, as soon as they found they had ty of Mrs. Curd, of Warren county. He was af new master, destroyed large quantities of water and provisions, for the sake of obtaining a small quantity for their own use. I restored their former masters, and they had to resort to the fiercest eruelty before they could break up these practices of the slaves. I hope no delay will take place in removing the slaves from this vessel. She is small, has large holes cut in her spar deck for ventilation, and is without mast coats. In case of a heavy gale at sea, and battening down beoming necessary, the slaves would mostly suffoious to remove my command, as the stench on hoard is horrible. " " Twelve of the hoard is horrible. " " Twelve of the slaves have died since the capture of the vessel. They are without medical assistance of any The health of the command and prize officers continued good.

The question "what is to become of these negroes," is already discussed in the Charleston papers. A correspondent of the Courier says.

They are here on the very threshhold of civili They are at the dawn of christanity; shall we send them back to heathen dakness? They are almost within the pale of law and a social state, almost within the pale of law and a social state, the pale of law and a social state, almost within the pa zation; shall we send them back to barbarism where they can take relations; shall we send them back the realm of no law but that of brute force; no relation but those that brutes take? They are here almost within the pale of society where they will be safe, and where every physical want will be surely supplied: will we send them back to the precarions subsistence snatched from wreches as starving as themselves?

But why should we send them back? Do we not want them? They are wanted everywhere Under its iron hand the prondest and stateliest them, our railroads want them, our waste lands are in want of them. Is it from any sense, among ourselves, of the inhumanity of rendering them useful? We put our sons and brothers under masters to learn a trade, and it is humane to do this and not humane to do the same to Cincinnati Price Current has the following officreatures that are certainly as much in need of training and instruction? There is no reason why we should send them back, but in this, that it has become agreeable to another section of this Union to look with disgust on our institu slons, and we are called upon to make this sacrafice of interested and humanity to propilaw are equal, that negroes are men; and therefore as to their rights must be regarded as stand ket exist. ing on the same footing with white men, where there is no positive or municipal law that degrades them." In his last (July) number, it is also said: "The reviewer did not complain of the Chief Justice that he did not follow the Council of Trent against the Constitution, but that he control of the constitution, but that he control of the control of t cil of Trent against the Constitution, but that he did not remember, in interpreting the language, or more properly the silence of the Constitution touching negro citizenship, what his religion teaches him, and what as a Catholic he holds, and must hold, namely, that negroes are men, and that all men are equal before the laws of nature; and therefore as men, negroes and whites stand on the same footing of equality. The legal presumption, then, must be in favor of negro citizenship. If negroes are men, and all men.

CATHOLICISM OPPOSED TO THE DRED SCOTT DEcision.-The following is the language of Prof. O. A. Bronson, one of the ablest expounders of ning the Dred Scott decision:

ATROCIOUS MURDER.-We find the following letter in the Cookville Times, of the 28th ult:

OLYMPUS, OVERTON CO., TENN., Aug. 24, 1858.

I have just learned that there was one of the most terrible murders committed near the camp ground in Fentress county, some six miles from this place, on yesterday, that has ever happened in the mountain country. The circum are about as follows: There was a State's warrant in the hands of James Reed, of Fentress county, against one on the South Platte river. We attach more importance to the statements of this because the gentleman who received it here vouches for the attachments of the writer. We give the other truthfulness of the writer. We give the statement of the writer. We give the statement to the received it here vouches for the attachment truthfulness of the writer. We give the several men to assist him, and started after him. About a half a mile from the camp ground one of the party, a Mr. Floyd Evans, came up with Furgison, when he drew a knife and stabbed Evans very severely in several places.

Reed attempted to assist Evans, when Furg-son turned upon him and killed him instantly cutting him up in the most inhuman manner, and then knocked him on the head with a rock. He then aimed to make his escape, but was cap-tured without any further bloodshed. When my informant left he was securely chained and guard ed by perhaps one hundred men. His trial was to take place in the evening, when I have no doubt he will be committed to jail. He had an accomplice, one Bill Jones, also of Clinton county, who made his escape, but was pursued, and I hope will be brought to justice. Yester day evening Evans was still alive, but was not expected to live.

THE BLACK TONGUE .- The Richmond South says that cases of the black tongue disease have occured in the neighborhood of that city, and gives the following as remedies:

"Copperas and water, strong decoction, half a gallon, to which add half a pint of spirits of tur-qentine—use as a mouth wash once a day for two days, and drench with one pint of salt and to ahide by it in any particular; and we therewater

Another: "Take one tablespoonful of wagon tar, one o salt, one of soft soap, a teaspoonful of copperas, a piece of assafirtida about the size of a peachseed—put on a bridlebit wrapped two or three which no free man in the free States ought ever to sub-times round with thick cotton cloth, tied well at mit to. We ourselves, upon that ground, are in each end to keep it on the bit, put it on the cow favor of the repeal of that "condition," and in as a bridle, renew twice ever other day. Put it favor of the administration of Kansas upon the on as soon as you discover it on the heast."

One correspondent writes:
"I have found no remedy to succeed so well as

It began at Dewittville, and took its course westward to a place called Smithville, about five miles distant, tearing up trees, demolishing fences and outbuildings, and leveling almost everything in its will have to travel some six to eight hundred miles, to take their provisions with them, and There was no one in the latter house, Mrs. Hoyt and three children being on a visit to the house of Mr. Smith. Mrs Hoyt was instantly killed and Mrs. Smith so badly injured that she died in a very few hours afterwards. A lady named Mrs. Hornbeek was also in the house at the time, and was so seriously injured that her life is des paired of. The three children of Mrs. floyt were also very seriously injured. Mr. Smith was in the city at the time of the accident. The tornado passed on its course toward Smithfield, but whether any more lives were lost or building blown down, we are unable to learn.

KANSAS AS A STATE .- The Washington Union Constitution cannot get before Congress during the coming winter, the session ending March 4th. After long contending that the Lecompton Constitution was the work of the people of Kansas, this reckless sheet endeavors to reconcile the recent rejection of the Lecompton Constitution by statements, in the following manner: "The votes cast at the recent election indicate that there is now a population in the Territory very nearly approaching seventy-five thousand, which the coming season will run up far above the representative ratio of ninety three thousand, thus removing all objections to the admission of the people of that Territory with its deceitful

But although the Southern Democrats in Cou But although the Southern Democrats in Congress were induced to vote for the English bill in order to win the semblance of a victory, the people of the South, who see the result, cannot be hamboozled by any such stuff as that in which the Union abounds. The Administration is trying to crawl down from its position, that 30,000 inhabitants are enough to form a slave State, but on the south of t 93,000 is required to make a free State, by falsely representing that Kansas already has the requisite population as specified by the English bill. But all their dodging will be unavailing .-They now admit that Kansas will be a free State winter after next. The Richmond Whig, By virtue of a decree of the Woodford Circuit Commissioner, will a third last April Term, I, as Commissioner, will a in answer to the Examiner, has the following: The Examiner wants to know whether our "opposition friends in the free States" will con-sent to adhero to the "solemn condition of the English Bill." We answer that as the Opposi tion in the free States were opposed to the Bill at first, they are under no manner of obligation fore, take it for granted that they will desire and struggle for the repeal of that "condition." Not can any one blame them if they do; for that "condition" involved an odious and unjust discrimination between the slave and the free States, which no freeman in the free States ought ever to subsame terms, as regards population, under her new Constitution as under the Lecompton Conone composed of salt, vinegar and pepper made strong, and a wine glass full poured into their mouths two or three times a day."

We leave all such disgraceful quibbling, all such unjust and dishonest practices, to the bogus Democracy But we op-posed the English Bill, and were, therefore, at liberty to pursue such course in regard to it as we may think proper. Not so, however, with the Democracy. The English Bill was their measure—their crack measure—their measure-and they must adhere to it through thick and thin; and especially must they cling to that "portion of it which rendered it tolerable to the South," or they must stand convicted as swindlers of the sharpest stripe, and have visited upon them the stern indigation of the Southern people, whom they will have deceived and defrauded as men were never deceived and de-frauded before."

Mr. Lincoln holds to these positions:

Yet if the peo ple of any Territory, having "a fair chance and tution, establish slavery therein, "uninfluenced by the actual presence of the institution among them," he (Mr. L.) could see no alternative but to admit them into the Union.

"It matters not," said Mr. , "what way the Supreme Court may hereafter decide as to the abstract question whether sla very may or may not go into a Territory under the Constitution; the people have the lawful means to introduce it or exclude it as they please, for the reason that slavery cannot exist a day or an hour anywhere, nuless it is supported by local police regulations. Those police regu lations can only be established by the local Legislature, and if the people are opposed to slavery they will elect representatives to that body who will by unfriendly legislation effectually pre vent the introduction of it into their midst. If. on the contrary, they are for it, their legislation will favor its extension. Hence, no matter what the decision of the Supreme Court may be on that abstract question, still the right of the peo ple to make a slave Territory or a free Territory is perfect and complete under the Nebraska bill."

In response to the question whether he was in favor of acquiring additional territory without regard to how far such acquisition may affect the Union on the slavery question, Mr. D. said: gave a large majority for the American Candi "Whenever it becomes necessary in our growth nd progress to acquire more territory, I am in cry, and when we have acquired it, I will leave the people free to do as they please, either to make it a slave or free Territory, as they prefer. We notice that our friend Governor Morehead is spoken of as the American candidate for Congress next year to run against that "degeneror of it, without reference to the question of ate son of a noble sire," James B. There is no man either South or North, that in these perilous times, we would rather see in Congress than Governor Morehead. In electing Governor Morehead to Congress, the Ashland district will redeem itself in the eyes and the hearts of the Whigs of the Union. Popular Sovereignty. From the following, which we clip from "The Press,' John W. Forney's paper, the man who elected Mr Buchanan, it will be discovered that there is no difference between the views of Democracy and the Republicans on the question of popular sovereignty so dangerous to the interests of the Sonth; and that Judge Douglas and his associates are the true reflectors of Democratic

During the Presidential campaign of 1856 there was no portion of the opposition party in this country which objected to the doctrine of popular sovereiguty. It is true that in Kentucky and in several other Southern States, the friends of Mr. Fillmore headed by Humphrey Marshall re fused to acknowledge it. But the great mass of tho opposition declared that they had believed iu the doctriuo, and only contested it bocause they did not believe that Mr. Buchanan would faithfully carry it out. This was the burden of the song all through the free States. They said that, if this doctrine of popular sovereignty as advocated by the friends of Mr Buehanan was ing for a trip of a few days to Chartress and the carried out, they were willing to stand by it. If the speeches of popular orators who supported Mr. F. emont could now be reproduced, it would be found that they all took this ground. it is ascertained, after full experience, that the pledges made by the Democratic party in 1855 are about to be absolutely fulfilled by the advocates of Judge Douglas in Illinois, and by such moral heroes as Wise, Packer, Walker, and others, it is easy to see that the Republicans will find it difficult to resist the conclusion that the oledges of 1856, however they may have been disregarded by others, will be entirely fulfilled by these distinguished men representing the masses of the Democracy. The Americans of Kentucky and the other Southern States have invariably advocated the doctrine that the people of the Territories should Constitution, which is Popular Sovereignty as teachers of the Millersburgh Male and Female t was understood by Mr. Clay and as it was em braced in the Compromise measures of 1850. It was against the doctrine, that the people of the Territories, while they remain Territories, have the right to exclude slavery-which is Popular Sovereignty as understood by Forney, Douglas, Buchanan & Co .- that they protested; and it was only by repudiating such a construction of it that the South was carried by the Democrats. As Forney says, the Republicans have never been opposed to Popular Sovereignty as it was construed in Mr. Buchanan's letter of accept-

The Northern Administration Democrats cannot endure the galling fire with which the opposition have been raking their ranks. They are placed in an awkward position. It is death to the politicians to say that although 30,000 inhabitants was sufficient for the admission of Kansas under the Lecompton Constitution to which the people of that Territory were opposed, yet 93,000 will be required before she can be admitted under any other Constitution, or one that is acceptable to her people; but the Administration organ at Washington vows vengeance against all Democrats who will not abide by the disabling clause of the English swindle. The New York News, the Administration organ of that city, endeavors to reconcile the antagonistic interests in the following uningenious manner: It is proper that a normal rule should be established that hereafter no territory shall pass from its organic condition, unless it shall contain the legal number of inhabitants required for s representative in Congress; but as no such con dition was imposed by Senator Douglas in the Kansas bill, nor for the submission of its Constitution to a vote of the people, as was incorpo rated by him in the Minuesota act, and recom mended by President Buchanan to be inserted in all future organic acts, it is a question for the Congress to determine whether Kansas may hereafter be admitted into the Union upon terms of perfect equality, without being compelled to come under any new requirements. We must not abandon the in trenched positions upon which we have been in vineible. The sacred principle of popular sover-eignty, so much derided by our opponents, must not be surrendered to those who have invoked its potency to sustain and justify the enemies of "law and order" in Kansas. A condition imposed by one Congress and which is rejected by the people of a territory, forms no obstacle to a renewed appli cation on the part of its people to a succeeding Con gress, who, under the Constitution, is clothed with discretionary powers to admit new States.

The Administration having surrendered their position against the submission of the Constitu tion to the people, as assumed in the Green bill. by the passage of the Eaglish conference bill, will now be obliged to back down from the odi ous disabling clause of the latter, or be defeated in every Northern State. We shall see whether or not the Administration will yield this point in order to maintain their ground in the North, and we will see whether or not Southern Democrats who endorsed the English bill will still adhere to the shifting, changing, inconsistent, pliable, dishonest and unscrupitlous Administration, who endeavor to cheat both sections in order to secure them, and who legislate not for the country but for a party. We think, however, that Democrats will follow Democratic leaders anywhere, without regarding the filth of the locality.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Rheumatism Cured!

Not less than about twenty thousand cases, of this painful and paralyzing disease, have already been cured by the use of Dr. Mortimore's celebrated remedy. These comprise cases of every seeming form of the disease, from those of a recent Inflammatory (acute) character, to old Chronic eases of ten, twenty, and even thirty years standing, and this after the patients had long been given up as incurable by eminent physici ans. Some had taken voyages at sea, spent years of residence in the most salubrious climes, visit ed the various "Water Cure" establishments, and celebrated Springs, both in this country and Europe, yet had still remained cripples, until they used this remedy, and by its use have been restored to health.

This is a vegetable-internal remedy, prepared and recommended for this one disease alone. This it cures, and is perfectly safe to be used in any state of health, even by the most delicate female or child.

Evidence of the highest possible character from physicians, clergyman and others, is pub lished in behalf of this remedy, such as to give it character with every intelligent or reflecting mind. This evidence will be furnished to any address desired. The medicine is sold at $5 per bottle, five bottles for $20, or $40 per dozen, and will be sent by Express, or as directed, to any part of the Union. Apply to or address
